

Urgent Maternal Health Warning Signs

Across

2. Changes in your _____. The ability to see. Refers to sight or eyesight.
4. Temporary increase in body temperature. If yours is 100.4°F or higher during pregnancy or in the after delivery, seek medical care immediately.
5. _____ about harming yourself or your baby. Feeling sad, hopeless, or not good enough, extremely worried all the time. Scary ones that are hard to get rid of.
8. Vaginal _____ or fluid leaking during pregnancy. Loss of blood from inside or outside of the body.
11. Severe _____ and throwing up. Discomfort in the stomach and a feeling of sickness.
12. Overwhelming _____. Suddenly feeling very tired and weak. Defined as the state of wishing for

Down

1. Baby's _____ stopping or slowing during pregnancy. Defined as an act of changing location or position or of having this changed.
3. Trouble _____. Tightness in your throat or chest. You might have trouble doing this when lying down flat.
6. Severe _____ that won't go away or gets worse over time. Defined as a continuous pain in the head.
7. _____ or fainting. Feeling faint, weak, unsteady, losing one's balance.
9. _____ pain or fast-beating heart. Describes the upper front part of the body between the stomach and neck.
10. Extreme swelling of your _____ or face. The end of sleep or rest; weariness.

13. Severe ____ pain that doesn't go away. Sharp, stabbing, cramp-like pain. Another word for stomach or abdomen.

14. Severe swelling, redness or pain of your ____ or arm. One of the limbs on a human body that a person uses to walk.

a person's arms beyond the wrist, contains fingers and thumb.